A story about a dog's eye and a dead horse ... and its moral

THIS IS A STORY—it's gone around for ages—about a young bloke heading off to the races.

He asks his uncle, a retired horse trainer, for a tip...he wants a certainty.

'If you're going to the races,' says the unk, 'my tip is don't eat the pies.'

Funny?

Well, maybe or maybe not, but the glaring unanswered question no one seems to have asked is this: Why did the pieman fail to study the form—not on the horses, but on his pies?

Everybody at a race track spends countless hours studying the race form; pointlessly as it turns out, because no one knows what's in the mind of a horse.

But why the pie maker didn't study the form of his pies is unforgiveable.

Because a good beef pie is a deadset cert provided it has three things: a decent cook, a good pastry, and above all, top-grade beef, and plenty of it.

So here's a proper hot tip: Charbray is always a winner!

Charbray, in multiple trials, has been proven to have no trouble grading MSA; therefore it delivers on tooth appeal.

The modern Charbray also delivers satisfied cattlemen, because Charbrays are dependable. They're a fertile, adaptable, fast-growing and predictable breed, and they are constant winners in the saleyards—all the ingredients you want and need.

So don't be like the pieman.

Do the form.

Think. Choose.
Invest. Win.

And enjoy the pies.

Charbray. Bloody lovely.

OUR 2025 WELCOME MESSAGE —Matt Welsh (for the Welsh families)

Think. Choose. Invest. Win. Charbray.

EARLIER THIS YEAR a most fortunate happenstance began with an unexpected phone call.

The call was from Pakistan. The caller, Muddassar Hassan basically said he and his compatriots were sick and tired of having to come to Australia to enjoy a decent steak.

Then, like the age-old Mohammad/Mountain story, Hass (as he prefers to be called) said instead of travelling 10,000km for a good steak, it was time to bring the steak's progenitors to Pakistan so they could make their own.

Hass' Pakistani based HRM Dairies, along with The Power Genetics (TPG) are driving a venture to source the best livestock genetics internationally for the improvement of Pakistan's herds.

The genetic strengths they are chasing are fertility, adaptability, growth, and consistency in order to produce a superior product within the challenges of their climate.

Hass and his colleagues had done their research and due diligence beforehand, and so following a visit to Carrabah for a first hand inspection, Huntington is pleased and proud to say the consortium were satisfied they'd found both the perfect breed and the perfect brand.

Reports and feedback following their Charbray purchases landing in Pakistan are enthusiastically positive—a real win-win: the most satisfying outcome for all.

Coincidentally, Huntington this year is also adopting the Mohammad/Mountain principle.

Huntington Charbrays are going places along an ever-widening highway.

Huntington genetics have been sold and settled in breeding operations, with success, across every Australian State, and our seedstock has recently been introduced into SE Asia as mentioned.

Our stud has earned a place at the forefront of breed development through our resolute quest for and advancement towards perfection. Indeed, Huntington-sired bulls have gained the top price at seven of the last 10 Australian Charbray Society Annual National Sales.

We are geared for further growth and expansion, and the horizon is beckoning.

LUKE WELSH pictured with the inspection and negotiating team from HRM/The Power Genetics, Pakistan.

A key area perfectly suited to greater infusion of premium Charbray genetics is the northern and western 'Big Cattle Country', where the Charbray's proven strengths can make a genuine, positive impact in the larger breeding herds.

So, following the age-old maxim: if it's easier to take the sale to the big country than vice versa, that's what we will do.

Huntington's Annual Spring Sale is relocating from Taroom to Charters Towers and will be held there on November 21.

Additionally, we are delighted to have been invited to showcase Charbray bulls for the first time at the Annual Fitzroy Crossing Bull Sale, WA, on August 22 where we are selling a team of bulls.

Thank you for your interest in our upcoming Brisbane Valley sale. We sincerely hope to see you there. As ever, we invite you to allow some time to enjoy our customary post-sale refreshments and yarn-time, but be warned: We love talking Charbray.
